Community Development Office Closed Through May 1st

Troup County, Ga. March 30, 2020 – Due to the concerns of Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) and the current local state of emergency in Troup County, the office of Troup County Community Development will be closed to the public and all walk-in traffic until May 1, 2020, unless extended or sooner dismissed, effective immediately.

The Troup County Community Development staff members will continue to handle all aspects of the department, such as telephone calls and emails, building and licensing applications, permits and inspections, planning and zoning requests, etc. The county urges the public to call the office directly for questions or concerns, access the Troup County website for online services, use email and mail-in services for form and document submittal or utilize the drop-box service located near the entrance of the Troup County Government Center. All citizens may continue to conduct business via the methods listed above without the need of in-person contact through the Community Development office.
