Troup County Tax Commissioner's Office Extends Temporary Closure

Troup County, Ga. March 27, 2020 – As a precautionary measure to guard against the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) and to help ensure the health and safety of the public and our employees, the Troup County Tax Commissioner's Office has extended the temporary closure to the public and all walk-in customers until May 1, 2020. Staff will continue to handle all aspects of the office, including telephone calls, mailings, mail and online tag renewals, online tax payments, etc.

The county continues to urge residents to utilize the drop-box service located near the entrance of the Troup County Government Center for payments in the form of check or money order for property taxes or tag renewals. During this period, the Tax Commissioner's Office will continue to record received information and payments as valid as soon as possible and the postage/mail fee will continue to be waived while the office remains closed to the public.

All taxpayers may continue to conduct business via online services without the need of in-person interactions. Please visit https://eservices.drives.ga.gov/_/ for online Motor Vehicle services to include tag renewal, duplicating registration, canceling registration, TAVT estimator, etc. Please visit www.troupcountytax.com for online services to include searching & paying taxes, viewing and printing property tax bills, property tax payments, property tax receipts, general information, and others. For additional questions regarding motor vehicle taxes and property tax payments, please contact the Troup County Tax Commissioner's Office at (706) 883-1620.
